1. PURPOSE

The Parties wish to explore a potential business relationship involving the assessing a licensing agreement for proprietary cloud computing platforms (the "Purpose"). In connection with the Purpose, each Party may disclose to the other certain confidential and proprietary information. The Parties desire to protect such information from unauthorized use and disclosure.

2. DEFINITION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

As used herein, "Confidential Information" means any and all information or data that has or could have commercial value or other utility in the business in which the disclosing Party is engaged, including but not limited to: trade secrets, know-how, inventions, technical data, engineering and technical drawings, product plans, research and development activities, financial information, marketing plans, business strategies, customer lists, supplier information, pricing, and any information designated as confidential by the disclosing Party at the time of disclosure. Each Party, as a receiving party, agrees to: (a) hold the Confidential Information in strict confidence using at least the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information, but no less than reasonable care; (b) not disclose the Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the disclosing Party; (c) use the Confidential Information solely for the Purpose; and (d) limit access to the Confidential Information to its employees, directors, officers, advisors, and representatives who have a need to know such information for the Purpose and who are bound by confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those herein.

4. TERM AND TERMINATION

Upon request by the disclosing Party or upon termination of this Agreement, the receiving Party shall promptly return or, at the disclosing Party's election, destroy all tangible materials embodying the Confidential Information, including all copies, notes, and summaries thereof. The receiving Party shall certify in writing such destruction upon request.

6. REMEDIES

Each Party acknowledges that any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement may cause irreparable harm to the other Party for which monetary damages would be an inadequate remedy, and that the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to seek equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance, without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting a bond, in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity.

7. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of law provisions. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be resolved by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) under its Commercial Arbitration Rules, with proceedings conducted in Wilmington, Delaware. Judgment on the arbitration award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

8. GENERAL PROVISIONS

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, and negotiations. This Agreement may not be amended except by a written instrument signed by both Parties. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. Neither Party may assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, including electronic signatures, each of which shall be deemed an original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date.
